To the Public.

Every Business Man who consults his own interest, will avail himself of the columns of The Daily Sentinel,—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but every word true.

The Sentinel, having double the circulation in the city, and more than treble out of it, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

NOW FOR WISCONSIN!

PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO and INDIANA, have just spoken, in thundering tones, in favor of REPUBLICAN principles. The aggregate majority, in these three States, will reach seventy thousand. The result is an unerring indication of the popular current. It removes all doubt as to the issue of the Presidential contest. It renders morally certain the election of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois, and HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Maine, to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States. No sagacious politician of any party questions this fact.

Nevertheless the REPUBLICANS of WISCONSIN have still a great task to accomplish. They can, of course, secure the Electoral vote of the State for Mr. LINCOLN, but more is asked and expected of them. We must not only, carry our Republican Electoral Ticket, by the largest majority yet cast in our State, for this good cause; but we must take care that the People are represented, at Washington and at Madison, by true-blue Republicans.

An easy victory is within our grasp. Let the men of Wisconsin, emulous of the glorious deeds of our brethren-in-arms, in the Central States, resolve to out-do them.

This cannot be effected without WORK—constant, united, intelligent work. But with it, everything is possible. Our friends are greatly inspirited, our opponents completely disheartened, by the October elections. The former already hear in the distance the huzzas which will hail our coming victory in November. The latter see, all too plainly, "the handwriting on the wall." Both parties—all parties—understand that the battle is already fought and the victory won. For all that, let no true Republican in Wisconsin omit a single effort, neglect a single duty, which can aid to swell the Republican majorities, or enhance the Republican triumph, on the Sixth of November.

Look After the Congressional Districts.

The success of our Presidential Candidate is now beyond a doubt. But it is important that he should have, if possible, the support and co-operation of a Republican Congress. The Democrats, despairing of accomplishing anything for the Electoral Tickets, will now turn all their energies to securing as many of the close Congressional Districts as they can, in the hope of maintaining that supremacy in the Legislature which they are about to lose in the Executive branch of the Government.

The Senate is coming over, slowly but surely, to Republicanism. The Democrats from the Free States drop out one by one, as their terms expire, and are replaced by Republicans. The election of Republican Legislatures in all the States thus far, renders it nearly certain that by the time President Lincoln's term is half over, if not before, he will have the Senate on his side.

The House of Representatives can be secured still earlier. It can be made Republican on the 4th of March next. But this requires vigilant care at the coming Election, that no District is thrown away for want of due effort.—Albany Evening Journal, Oct. 12th.

This appeal, though specially intended for New York, applies equally well to Wisconsin. Our State ought to send three Republican Representatives to Washington to sustain the incoming Administration of ABRAHAM LINCOLN. That the First and Second Districts will do their part towards ensuring this consummation, there is no doubt; but let every Republican in these two Districts make it his personal business to see that the majorities for the Republican candidates, Messrs. POTTER and HANCHETT, are emphatic ones. The Third District can and must be REDEEMED. Are the Republicans of the Third fully alive to the importance of this result, and resolved to secure it?

The Western Reserve.

The following are the reported majorities in the several counties composing the famous "Western Reserve" in Ohio. It is decidedly a Republican neighborhood:

Ashtabula	3,600
Trumbull	2,147
Cuyahoga	3,100
Lorain	2,078
Portage	1,060
Summit	1,540
Mahoning	595
Lake	1,650
Geauga (estimated)	1,600
Medina "	1,600
Huron "	1,100
Erie "	900
Republican majority	20,711

These counties promise 25,000 majority LINCOLN, next month.

The Congressional Elections.

According to the latest returns we have received, the Representatives elect in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana are divided thus, politically:

	Republicans.	Democrats.
Pennsylvania	27	4
Ohio	13	7
Indiana	7	4
	40	14

One District each, in Pennsylvania and Ohio, still disputed.

NINETEENTH SENATE DISTRICT.—The Republicans of the Nineteenth Senate District, composed of the counties of Manitowoc and Calumet, have nominated BENJAMIN J. SWEET, of Calumet County, as their candidate for State Senator. The Manitowoc Tribune, referring to this nomination says:

> Mr. Sweet is a young man of fine abilities and good legal acquirements. He is an active Republican and popular everywhere he resides. If elected he will represent his district fairly and honestly. His chances for success were conceded to be better than those of any other candidate. He will receive a warm support from personal friends of opposite political views who will not support his opponent; and we feel assured that the people will Sweet-en the Legislature by sending "Jeff" to the Senate.

We hope that the Tribune is correct in its prognostications. Mr. SWEET would be a valuable accession to the Republican majority in the Senate.

Nebraska Election.

OMAHA, Oct. 15—9 P. M.

Official accounts are in from all the organized and settled counties in the Territory.—Mr. Daily, Republican candidate for Congress, has 162 majority.

UNDER WHICH FLAG.—The Evening Wisconsin is striving hard to serve two masters. The outside of the sheet is as much inclined toward DOUGLAS as the inside is toward LINCOLN, though the angle of inclination either way is not very acute.

In noticing the DOUGLAS demonstration of Saturday, the outside editor says:

> "We were glad to see such a general turnout of the masses. Mr. Douglas is a great man, even if he can't be President, and respect and honor are due to his talents and his position as a distinguished statesman."

While at the same time the inside man discourses in this wise:

> "Mr. Douglas' speech was fairer than he usually delivers,—some misrepresentations, of course, and slang epithets towards his opponents. He must call the Republicans 'abolitionists,' or he would not be Stephen A. Douglas, the politician. Whenever Webster or Clay or Wright spoke to their partisans, they always designated their opponents by the name they had chosen for themselves. Seward also adopts the same noble courtesy toward his opponents. So did Abraham Lincoln when he was on the stump. This glaring fact alone would go to show that Douglas has not the appreciation of what is due from a man who assumes to be a statesman. It is thus that the small politician breaks out all through Douglas' speeches."

The only thing about the Wisconsin that we find fault with is its cowardice, in being afraid to hoist both tickets, and thus serve God and Mammon.

FIRE.—On Sunday morning, about two o'clock, a fire broke out in the brick building occupied by JOHN ROONEY, No 197, East Water street, as an extensive auction and commission house. Mr. ROONEY also lived in the building with his son in law, J. M. DIXON and family.

The firemen, after much delay, arrived on the spot, but the flames had already made such headway that no resistance could be offered to their impetuous ravages, and in a little while the entire structure was consumed, together with the most of its contents.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The inmates were aroused just before the alarm was given, by the smoke pouring into their sleeping apartment. They immediately attired themselves and hurried out, barely saving their personal apparel.

The building—a three story brick—was valued at about $4,000, and was insured for $1,000. There was a partial insurance, also, on the goods and furniture. The total loss is about $10,000.

CENTRAL CLUB MEETING.—At a meeting of the Republican Central Club, held on Friday evening last, the following named gentlemen were appointed to act as a committee of reception and arrangements on the occasion of the visit to Milwaukee of the Hon. GALUSHA A. GROW, of Pennsylvania, who will arrive here and address the people on the 18th inst.: G. A. STARKWEATHER, BERNHARD DOMSCHKE, P. VAN VECHTEN, Mr. NICHOLS and Mr. ROGERS.

A Committee was also appointed to make arrangements for a Grand Republican Mass Meeting in this city on the 25th inst.; particulars of which will be published in due time.

A SOCIAL AND INTELLECTUAL ARRANGEMENT.—The Light Guard recently passed a resolution, which provides for the future comfort and well-being of the members of that popular corps. They intend to make a parlor or reading room of their Armory, keeping it warmed and lighted of evenings, where members may come and read the newspapers and books which shall be provided. This is a capital plan, and is rendered all the more effective by the determination of the members to allow no smoking, drinking or card playing in the room. The proper measures have been taken to secure a library, and those of our citizens who may feel disposed to contribute to so laudable an undertaking, may send books to Captain STARKWEATHER.

THIRD WARD REPUBLICANS! see the call for a meeting at Sivyers' Hall, Main street, to-night, to nominate candidates for Assemblyman and Councillor. Be on hand.

The Interruption of Judge Douglas at Kenosha.

It was currently reported about town yesterday, that Judge DOUGLAS had been interrupted in his speech at Kenosha by the Wide-Awakes, who did all in their power to prevent the speaker from being heard, and that Mr. DOUGLAS remarked that he had travelled over all the States, and had never before been interrupted by political opponents.

This is a very good story for the Democrats, but the facts are these: When the train arrived in Kenosha the Wide-Awakes were parading; when the Senator appeared on the platform of the car, he asked if there was no staging, and, being answered in the negative, said, I wish those lights (referring to the Wide-Awake torches) would come up nearer. While this wish was being transmitted to the Captain of the Wide-Awakes, Mr. DOUGLAS commenced speaking.

On receiving the message the company commenced to march up to the car, at the tap of the drum, and another gentleman who was near Mr. DOUGLAS said:—

"Those fellows came here to disturb the meeting."

Mr. DOUGLAS asked who they were, and the reply was:—

"They are LINCOLN Wide Awakes."

"Very good," answered the Little Giant; "I will shame them." He then went on to state that he had spoken in almost every city in the Union, and had never been interrupted.

The Wide Awakes, meanwhile, having been told that the speech was commenced, came up silently, and remained until the close of his remarks, making no noise, but listening attentively.

When the meeting broke up, three cheers were given for DOUGLAS, and the company, out of respect for the Senator, avoided cheering their own candidate.

This is the whole of the story.

FOR THE SENTINEL:—Allow me through your columns, to say a few words in reference to the Fourth Ward nomination for Assembly. At a caucus held in that Ward for the purpose of nominating a candidate for that office CHARLES CAVERNO, Esq., after several ballots, received a majority of votes, and was declared the nominee for that office.

Since then, there has appeared in the Wisconsin, (and also in the Peoples' Press copied from the Wisconsin) a round-about charge of ballot-box-stuffing, unfairness, &c.

There are some, who are disappointed in not receiving the nomination, and was there ever a nomination to any considerable office made, wherein some one was not disappointed.

It is positively certain that everybody cannot be nominated for one and the same office, at one and the same time, nor could everybody be elected, if nominated.

The charge of ballot-box stuffing is mere nonsense—it has no foundation in fact—in short it was not stuffed, except as each man stuffed in his own vote, as he had a right to do.

It has always been supposed that one of the fundamental principles of the Republican party, and of this Government, is, that the will of the majority shall be the rule of action in all political matters; at all events, it is so held out to the world to be,—perhaps it is not so. There may be, in the Republican party, an element of latter-day Democracy. If there be, it is to be hoped that the party may immediately be purged; it certainly needs physic if such be the case.

Now that some are disappointed, who is to be blamed. No one can charge anything upon Mr. CAVERNO, for I think he was as much disappointed as any one; perhaps not so disagreeably disappointed.

There is another peculiar feature of this case. You may notice frequent gatherings of two or three Fourth Warders, here and there, and it seems to be the same individuals every time, and if you will but watch the play of their countenances, you will perceive an unusual degree of interest depicted thereon.

This may be all right; it certainly is all right, that Republicans should be interested and zealous in a good cause, but it seems strange that any two or three, or more men, not forming a majority, can be put out of their latitude or longitude; in short out of their reckoning, so disastrously, by the nomination of a man whose fitness for the office no one will for a moment question, and one against whose private character a whisper cannot be raised.

I am neither a prophet, nor the son of a prophet, but I remember at various times in my life, of hearing much about cause and effect, and when I discover certain effects, I naturally conclude there is a cause. Now, I do not pretend to know anything about these causes, but like a Yankee, I exercise my privilege of guessing, and I must say it looks very much, as if somebody, had an axe to grind, and who meant to grind it the expense of the Republicans of the Fourth Ward; and for ought I know, the axe needs both jumping and grinding, requiring a vast outlay of muscle on the part of somebody.

It might be proper to suggest to the Republicans of this city, and especially to the 4th Ward, that they look around and make a little inquiry, for, if I am rightly informed upon some political questions and certain political transportations, especially pertaining to the State of Wisconsin, it must certainly be the earnest wish of the Republicans of this city, and of the State, and especially is it for their interest that men should be elected to the Legislature who have set their heads and hands against a repetition of such legislation. I may have more to say at a future time. Yours, &c,

JOHN PAUL.

Catharine Welch and Michael Welch, charged with the larceny of 30 yards of silk from the store of Mr. Danenbaum. Examination in progress. Catharine and Mike are from Grand Rapids.

MORE BODIES FOUND.—The Kenosha Times of Tuesday, says:

"Eight or nine more bodies of the victims of the Lady Elgin casualty have blown ashore in this vicinity within the past four or five days. Among others were those of Miss ANNA GARTH, Mr. B. F. HALL, and a young man named WOODBURN, upon whose person was found $96 in money. Miss ANNA GARTH was found on the shore near Racine, last Sunday."

Common Council Proceedings—More Charges and Corruptions Laid on the Table.

The board of Councillors met last evening, His Honor, the Mayor, in the chair.

There were nine members, only, present. The board proceeded to business, notwithstanding it was stated by one of the members that there was not a quorum.

A number of petitions were presented and referred to the usual committees, after which another Councillor appearing there was a quorum.

Mr. LOCKWOOD stated that some time since he introduced a resolution in regard to an investigation committee; and he stated at that time that if that resolution did not pass, he should feel called upon to make charges against certain members of the Council. It is now my painful duty to make those charges, and it is one of the most painful duties that I ever had. I therefore charge WM. A. NOYES of malfeasance in office, who did receive from Mr. FLEETZHEIM $107, in connection with a contract for sewers. I also charge him with receiving from the City Clerk orders made out in favor of DAVID GEORGE, and of endorsing GEORGE's name on the back of said order, in a feigned hand, without any authority.

Attached was a resolution, that the Board of Aldermen and Councillors meet in convention, and that the said WM. A. NOYES be notified to appear before the convention on the 23d of October, to answer the charges made against him.

His Honor stated that so much of the charges as related to the malfeasance committed by a member of the old Board, could not be considered by this Board.

Mr. LOCKWOOD said the gentleman had been elected for two years, and his time had not expired.

The Mayor withdrew his objections, and said he was under the impression that the gentlemen was re-elected.

Councillor GREULICH said it did not come with a good grace from the Councillor to say the Board refused to adopt the Investigating Committee's resolution when he himself was the cause of its failure. Mr. GREULICH moved to amend the resolution by putting on only members who were elected for this year.

Councillor LOCKWOOD objected to the amendment.

Councillor GREULICH said he was sorry the gentleman did not know more about parliamentary rules than to wish—as he had heretofore done,—the appointment of an outside committee to the matter of investigation. This Council had no power over outsiders. Its jurisdiction ended with its own members.

Mr. GREULICH said he was the last man who could wish to stifle investigation; but he wanted impartial judges—men who were not determined to come in here and crush somebody—and for that reason he had moved the amendment to appoint a committee of men who had nothing to do with the affairs of the city before.

Mr. PLANKINTON spoke against the amendment. He was for having gentlemen who were aware of frauds speak out, and it was the duty of the Council to look them up.

Mr. LOCKWOOD said that in relation to the wood matter there was wood bought by this city which went into private houses, and it was the duty of the Council to put their foot on the attempt to cheat the city.

Mr. LOCKWOOD stated that he was elected a member of the Council to do his duty and he meant to do it, let it hit where it would.

Mr. LOCKWOOD also stated, in relation to appointing of outsiders on committees, that the council had appointed a committee of citizens to go to New York to negotiate bonds, thus establishing a precedent.

Mr. GREULICH said that he understood that the Councillor from the Seventh Ward was already under bonds for the same charges and therefore the council had no right to forestal the courts.

Councillor O'BRIEN moved to lay the resolution on the table. The whole thing in his opinion was got up for buncombe.

Councillors GREULICH, JOHNSON, MALLON, O'BRIEN, REUCKERT and WEBSTER voting aye on the motion to lay on the table, and Councillors LOCKWOOD, OBERMANN and PLANKINTON votin nay.

To the Clergy, Citizens and Philanthropists of Milwaukee.

Miss EMMA HARDINGE begs leave to say that she is engaged in endeavoring to found a self-sustaining institution for utterly homeless and outcast females. The chief design is to provide against the many failures that have hitherto been made in the attempt to benefit these unfortunate persons, as well as to institute an universal reform amongst their class, and the plan now proposed has been highly approved of by many of the most eminent and reformatory minds in the Union. Miss HARDINGE begs distinctly to say that this is a wholly unsectarian movement, and appeals to the philanthropists of every sect, the clergy of all denominations. Miss HARDINGE proposes to give a lecture on Thursday evening next, October 18th, at Good Templars' Hall, fully explanatory of the subject. The seats will be free, and the public are cordially invited to attend.

At the close of the lecture, a collection will be taken up in aid of the funds, which are provided solely by Miss HARDINGE's personal efforts and the contributions of the benevolent. The earnings Miss HARDINGE can devote to this work, together with every cent contributed, is deposited in the hands of Trustees in different cities of the Union, whose names, addresses and printed outlines of the plan can be obtained either of Mr. HENRY FREEMAN, of this city, with whom Miss HARDINGE makes her temporary residence, or by writing to her Post Office address, No. 8 Fourth avenue, New York city, where Miss HARDINGE would be happy to receive communications on this subject.

A Card.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me, through the columns of your paper, to return my heartfelt thanks to the people of Amsterdam, for their kind and humane treatment of the body of my daughter, Miss MARY MCGRAUGH, which was washed ashore, at that place, from the ill-fated Lady Elgin.

Mr. FRENCH acted the part of the good Samaritan, and by sending to the Sentinel office some parts of the clothing furnished means of recognizing the body.

Her remains were brought home on Saturday last and buried on Sunday, from the residence of her father, in the Third Ward.

I am also indebted to Mr. CRAIG, Clerk of the steamer Huron, for kindness to me, as a stranger, going back and forth to Port Washington. HUGH M. MCGRAUGH.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.—Last evening about seven o'clock, as the Rev. Mr. DONAHUE, of this city, was walking quietly thro' Biddle street, near the Summerfield church, an assault was made upon him by four young men. One of them came up from behind and seized him by the throat, and another struck him in the face with a heavy stone. Their victim cried "murder," and one of the street cars coming along, they fled precipitately.

Mr. DONAHUE received a very disagreeable wound over his eye. He can give no reason for the dastardly assault; does not know any of the young men, and is unconscious of having given cause for any personal hatred. The affair remains a mystery.

OFF FOR CALIFORNIA.—A large party, the friends of Mrs DURCKERT, were present at the departure of the Grand Haven boat last night, to bid that lady "good bye," and wish her a safe and pleasant journey to California, whither she goes to meet her husband, who was for several years a merchant on East Water street, Milwaukee. Mrs. DURCKERT is a daughter of Mr. DIBLEY, of Oak Creek, one of the earliest settlers of Milwaukee county, he having emigrated hither in 1835.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT TO MR. BALATKA.—This evening the Musical Society gives a farewell benefit to Mr. BALATKA, who is about to remove to Chicago. The concert takes place at the Academy of Music.

Mr. BALATKA has labored so long and studiously with the Society, that he has become identical with the musical interest in Milwaukee, and his presence will be missed by the entire community.

The programme of the concert for this evening is the best ever gotten up by the Society.

FRIEND PIERCE, the enterprising Bill-Poster, has located one door from the North-East corner of Milwaukee and Mason streets, where he intends to keep the latest news and the best cigars. As he is right in the line of travel, he will undoubtedly do well, as he deserves.

GUERNSEY'S BALM.—Buy it,—borrow it,—become possessed of it in some honorable manner, if possible. It is a sin not to take advantage of this wonderful preparation, and lessen your chances of experiencing severe pain, which can be prevented by a timely application of this remedy. Keep it in the house always.

MILWAUKEE HORSE SHOW.—MESSRS. EDITORS:—As a spectator of the proceedings of the exhibition at Milwaukee and an exhibitor in it, I desire to bear testimony to the high character of its management and the honorable conduct of its officers. Although unfavorable weather prevented a large attendance of visitors outside of the city, the stock exhibited was decidedly of a meritorious character. I have never seen, for the number of horses exhibited, a higher standard of quality. The premiums were in the main fairly awarded, and as generally satisfactory as could be expected. Probably some of the committee erred in judgment, as in all fairs. There was no inferior plate palmed off at a high rate, but the money was ready as soon as the awards was made. The management of this fair will commend the next annual exhibition to the general favor of the people of Wisconsin

☞ After all the pains and labor taken by D. B. De Land & Co. to produce a pure Saleratus, we are rejoiced to find that the public generally appreciate, and are liberally patronizing this celebrated manufactory. De Land & Co.'s Saleratus has a world-wide reputation for its perfect purity, and there is no longer any reasonable excuse for obliging people to eat disgusting and unwholesome bread, biscuit, pastry, &c., made so by impure Saleratus. D. B. De Land & Co.'s Manufactory is at Fairport, Monroe Co., N. Y., where the Saleratus can be procured at wholesale. It is also sold at wholesale by the principal grocers in large towns, and at retail by grocers and storekeepers everywhere.

THE RAILROAD WAR!
Judge Miller vs. the Supreme Court!
CAN'T FIGHT ON AN EMPTY STOMACH.
THE PRESS ON THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE.

THE POPULAR EATING HOUSE, AND the best known one all over the State is Thomson's, at Hartford, on the La Crosse Railroad. We don't know where a better lunch can be had at a fairer price just a quarter, and Thomson's face, of itself, is worth more to look at, in these glum times, than a week's board at an ordinary hotel.—Green Bay Advocate.

☞ We are informed that travelers on the Milwaukee & Minnesota are unanimous in their expressions of delight at Thomson's "Hartford Coffee House," and well they may be. Thomson is one of those fellows who, to be appreciated must be known, and the best way to know him is to stop and try his viands. He generally keeps the best, as the North-West will testify.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

HARTFORD COFFEE HOUSE.—People traveling upon the Milwaukee & Minnesota R. R., who neglect to stop into Thomson's Coffee House at Hartford, and get a biscuit, a couple of regular "Shanghai" eggs, a dough-nut and piece of pie, lose a great deal more than the "quarter" they have to pay for all these eatables. Thomson keeps everything in nice order and is always glad to see his friends.—Portage City Record.

THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE, HARTFORD.—The Kilbourn City Mirror says what is true in the following: "Just the place for breakfast or dinner when one is going to Milwaukee. We tried it one day last week, and, good as the dinner was, we are going to give the proprietor a puff worth three of it. To tell it in short, the warm biscuit, the fried cakes, the eggs, the pound cake, the butter, the pie, the coffee, and all the other nice things couldn't be beat in this State, or any of the other thirty-two that form this American Union—and all for the trifling sum of twenty five cents."—Daily Wisconsin.

THE HARTFORD COFFEE HOUSE.—We have always noticed that travelers on the Milwaukee & Minnesota railroad are anxious for the train upon which they are riding to arrive at Hartford station. The reason is now plainly evident to us, since we have ascertained that Thomson has a Coffee House there, where that fragrant beverage can be obtained in all its strength, richness and aromatic flavor, together with all necessary accompaniments. Thomson knows well how to do the thing up, and always succeeds in pleasing his customers; hence the reason he enjoys so large a run of custom.—Milwaukee News.

THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE.—At Hartford, on the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R., lives the jolliest, best natured, broadest faced, loudest laughing, best feeling, coolest talking man in the business. His name is Thomson. He dispenses pies and cakes and boiled hen fruits, and doughnuts, and clear coffee, and chickens, and lots of such stuff, to the hungry passengers. His price for all a man can eat is but two shillings, and he who calleth not at Thomson's knoweth not how to prolong his life, or to enjoy the luxuries of this world.—La Crosse Union & Democrat.

RUPTURE CURED
BY THE
India Rubber Riggs' Trusses.
THIS TRUSS HAS BEEN IN USE IN the City of New York for only a little over a year, and has already obtained a decided and unprecedented. The best physicians in New York City, having tested it, unhesitatingly recommend it, and pronounce it
"The only Philosophical Truss in Use."
The construction of the pad is such that it cannot do injury, either by pressure of the spermatic cord, by obstructing the circulation of the blood—or by overstretching and enlarging the openings. Does not constantly press in the Rupture and thereby give call for a Truss for life—like most of the Trusses in use—but presses in four places, bringing the parts together, giving NATURE A CHANCE to cure, which it does in nearly all cases. It greatly RELIEVES AND BENEFITS THE WORST FORMED RUPTURE, and will cure ordinary Hernia, particularly in children and young subjects. The principle is so simple and apparent that it may be readily understood, therefore let the interested examine it and judge for themselves. This truss can be used in bathing, is always cleanly, very light, and cannot be soured or worn out.
The undersigned has applied this instrument in the Office of the inventor during the past year, knows precisely how it should be adjusted and worn, and can give valuable hints and directions to patients. He has now opened a branch office at 191 Lake street, Chicago, for Western Trade. Will be at Walker House, in this city, for a week, to show and supply all who may wish to see or procure it.
Call and examine for yourselves. Dealers supplied at New York prices.

Giving Up the Election.

The New York Herald has been the most vindictive assailant of Republicanism among the New York press; the most clamorous for a "fusion" of all opposing factions and fragments of parties; and the most confident that such an alliance would avail to defeat Mr. LINCOLN. But the October elections have dispelled this illusion, and convinced even the Herald that there is no escape for the sham Democracy and their Know-Nothing allies, from ignominious defeat. The result in Pennsylvania is especially astounding to the Herald, as that paper repeatedly predicted the election of FOSTER, "Fusion" candidate for Governor, over CURTIN, the Republican nominee. The moral of this election is thus plainly stated by the Herald:

"The overwhelming defeat of Foster, the Democratic Union candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania, throws the whole weight of the Presidential battle upon New York.—Pennsylvania is irretrievably lost—the Great West presents no satisfactory signs of a rescue—the New England States have been abandoned to the enemy—our Northern conservative forces arrayed against Lincoln's election are, in fact, routed everywhere, except in New York, and New York is their forlorn hope.

The 'old guard' of Pennsylvania, which rolled back the tide of victory in 1858, have been ignominiously routed, under the guidance of their treacherous leaders. There is no hope remaining for the defeat of Lincoln but New York, and New York is a forlorn hope.

Had Mr. Curtin's majority been only five thousand or less, instead of fifteen or twenty thousand, as it is, there would have been some hope, with a cordial union of the Douglas, Breckinridge and Bell factions on one electoral ticket, of carrying the State in November; but with the petty squabbles of the one horse politicians on the State committees, aided by Douglas and Forney, they have rolled up the majorities against them so large that the floating vote will more than make up for all that the Bell forces can reduce Curtin's majority, and we may expect to see the majority for Lincoln, who has not really half the strength in Pennsylvania of Mr. Curtin, far exceed that of the latter. Let the people in all sections now prepare for the rule of a Republican President after the 4th of March next, for such is the decree of the Pennsylvania election."

Rallying the Breckinridge Men.

The Madison Argus and Democrat, tho' a zealous BRECKINRIDGE organ, has hitherto, in its desire to defeat LINCOLN, refrained from urging its followers and friends to vote for a seperate Democratic Electoral ticket in this State. But the October elections have satisfied the editor of the Democrat that Mr. DOUGLAS stands no chance of success, and therefore he appeals to the BRECKINRIDGE men in Wisconsin, to stand by their colors and sustain their own candidate. The Argus and Democrat says:

"We are now satisfied—as our better judgment constantly told us, that any efforts to delude the public of this State into Douglasism to defeat Republicanism must be vain and fruitless. The elections in every State where his personal presence has been manifested to inspirit his followers, speak but one language to Douglasism—defeat, defeat His name, his voice and doctrines have no charm to attract devotion and support. He will be the worst beaten candidate that ever ran for President, except Martin Van Buren, John P. Hale and James G Birney. He cannot carry Wisconsin into thrice the vote that Randal beat Hobart. His presence in the State, on his tour, is likely to operate the same as it has in Maine, Pennsylvania and Indiana. To pursue further the policy we have indicated, we consider useless.

In view of this fact we shall not longer withhold our appeals to the true Democracy of the State to rally for Breckinridge [illegible] Lane. With them, and those who [illegible] and port them, will, in future, be [illegible] now sup[illegible]mocracy of the nation. [illegible] the true Democracy will break up and [illegible] the Douglas faction organizations. [illegible] float off to the other organ[illegible] with us will remain the Demo[illegible] and [illegible]anization, the ark of the covenant, [illegible] Democratic traditions."

The Pennsylvania Election.

The New York Tribune thus explains the secret of the Republican victory in Pennsylvania, on Tuesday last:

> The moral of the annihilating Pennsylvania triumph on Tuesday is WORK. Our friends in that State have worked through the late canvass as never before. They have their local feuds, their personal ambitions and jealousies, and their little differences; but they resolved that these, for once, should not be permitted to defeat the Good Cause. Nearly every one of our strongholds has done better than our friends' estimates—witness Alleghany, Lancaster, and Erie. Schuylkill the pivotal county, has electrified us with her glorious vote.
> Our adversaries have done their very best—better than they can begin to do for President. Foster polled thousands of votes that cannot be fused against us for President. A beaten coalition is always ruined—it can only exist in the sunshine of prosperity. Lincoln's majority in the Keystone State will be overwhelming.

The example of our brethren in Pennsylvania commends itself to the Republicans of Wisconsin. WORK will give us 20,000 majority for LINCOLN and HAMLIN; an entire Congressional Delegation; and a large majority in the Legislature. Let one all, then, resolve to WORK!

But One Ballot.

Secretary Harvey informs us that but one ballot will be used in the election this fall. The Presidential Electors, Congressional, Legislative, and county tickets all being voted on one ballot.—Madison Patriot.

Such being the case, we hope that Inspectors of Election, throughout the State, will, at the close of the polls, election day, proceed first to count the votes cast for each ELECTORAL TICKET, and announce the result as soon as ascertained. If this be done, a very few hours will suffice to decide how large a majority Wisconsin has given for LINCOLN and HAMLIN.

THE LOST STEAMSHIP CONNAUGHT.—The Galway Vindicator describes the departure from that port of the ill-fated steamship Connaught, and says she was so full of passengers that many who applied for places could not be accommodated:

"Emigrants," says the Vindicator, "have a solid reason for going to America by the vessels of our line, and they are undoubtedly the best judges of the value of a short and rapid passage. We are satisfied, notwithstanding former breakdowns, that the first new ship of our line will astonish our Yankee cousins by a remarkably greased lightning voyage."

This is rather a curious commentary on the result.

Pennsylvania Election—Republican Majority Upwards of Thirty Thousand!

We find in the Philadelphia Bulletin, of Thursday last, returns which indicate a majority of over 30,000 for CURTIN in Pennsylvania. The Legislature will probably stand as follows: Senate, 25 Republicans to 8 Democrats; House, 67 Republicans to 33 Democrats:

The first district is in dispute, each party claiming to have carried it. The question has been sent to the Court for settlement—The aggregate Republican majority on Members of Congress ranges from thirty-two to thirty-five thousand.

The Presidency—The Forlorn Hope of the Democracy.

The organs of the Democratic party are doing their best to keep their courage up.—They try to persuade themselves that all is not lost. They acknowledge the stunning character of the blow they have received, but console themselves with the thought that there is a month left in which they may recover. The Washington Constitution talks about reconquering Pennsylvania—but most of the other organs confess that New York is their forlorn hope.

Much of this, however, is mere pretence. The sensible men of the party know and feel that they are beaten. The Pennsylvania election is not the only proof of coming defeat—it is only one more added to the many symptoms that have preceded it. All the elections of the summer have indicated the same tendency in the public mind. The Maine election showed clearly enough how things were going down east. The Western States all show a similar increase of Republican strength; and now Pennsylvania, usually the stronghold of the Democracy, the State which has more than once saved the party when all seemed lost, has given the death blow to their dying hopes.

It is utter folly to expect that a tide which has thus been rolling in and rising higher and higher during the last year or two, is to stop in mid-ocean and flow back before it strikes the shore. Why should not the same influences which have affected other States, tell upon New York? This City is mainly commercial, but so is Philadelphia. Our people are conservative, but so are those of Pennsylvania. The same causes must produce the same effects here as they have produced elsewhere. New York feels the same impulse which has roused every other State to an indignant and effective protest against the current character of our Federal rule. She will vote the same way, and we shall be very much surprised if Lincoln's plurality in this State does not very considerably exceed 50,000. The Fusion movement, on which reliance is placed in certain quarters, never very well informed on political subjects, will not do the slightest good. Indeed we believe it has done, and is doing the Opposition party very great hurt. If the Douglas Democrats had gone vigorously to work immediately after their Syracuse Convention, pushed their ticket, fought their enemies and sustained their friends on principle, and made no efforts for coalition or fusion, with other parties, they would have cast a larger vote than they will now. They have disgusted thousands of their friends and have demoralized the whole Opposition movement. —N. Y. Times, Oct. 13.

From Washington.

Special Despatch to the New York Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Oct. 10 '60.

THE QUESTION OF "DISUNION."

Now that it is admitted on all hands that Abraham Lincoln is to be the next President of the United States, speculation suggests when disunion shall occur, as threatened by the hot-heads of the South. An official has left town, stating that the Union is bound to be dissolved; but our excellent Mayor has expressed the hope that the thing may not be done before breakfast. The fact is, that with the idea that Mr. Lincoln is to be the next President, comes the oth[illegible] sober second thought whether it [illegible] while to enter into the desi[illegible] worth Yancey & Co. for disuni[illegible]gns of Messrs. a fact, that the bu[illegible], I may state as are beginning [illegible] business men of the South propose [illegible] to give their attention to the that [illegible] of disunion, and are indicating [illegible], when the point comes fairly before them, they will decide the matter without respect to the demonstrations of politicians.

POLITICS AND THE STOCK MARKET.—If Stocks are the barometer of public feeling, it will occur to any one who examines the transactions of yesterday at the Stock Exchange, that the howlings of the disunion organ in this city—the "thunder mutterings" of the Herald, and the croakings of the Express—have been taken by the community as such trash deserves to be received. The bears of Wall street, encouraged by these vaporings, and foreseeing an immense crash in the stock market in the event of a Republican victory in Pennsylvania, have for some time past put out contracts for delivery—expecting, when the telegraph wires flashed the news of the triumph of the Republicans in the great State from which we have had such glorious tidings, that a rush to sell stocks would be the consequence, and that thus they would be enabled to buy in their shorts and make a "big thing" in the way of profits. Not only Pennsylvania, but in Ohio and Indiana each speak in clarion tones in favor of the great principles of the Republican party; and it is wonderful to find that, after all forbodings of the Herald and the whining of other Fusion organs, the stock market not only stands the terrible shock firmly, but actually improves on the news! Even stocks of the Southern States are in better demand, and throughout the street the feeling seemed cheerful, if not buoyant.

People are not quite so shallow as the Fusionists suppose, and are not to be frightened out of stocks or votes by the twaddle about disunion, which is ventilated in the columns of the Herald.—N. Y. Tribune.

SECTIONAL CANDIDATES.—The election in Florida has resulted in the success of the Breckinridge candidates: those of the Bell party stand next on the list; but at the last advices the votes for Douglas had not been counted. It is supposed that he will recieve nearly as many votes as Lincoln, whose forces were not yet organized in that State. At the November election Lincoln will probably come nearer to success than his Illinois competitor. The people down there will find out before that time that if the Republican chief is a "sectional candidate," having the entire North in his favor, he is more available than the chief of the squatter sovereignty, who has only a few of the first settlers of the territories on his side. Douglas is emphatically not sectional, because there is no section, under the present appearances, from which he will recieve a solitary electoral vote. The East, North and West are for Lincoln; while the Middle and South will be divided between Lincoln, Bell and Breckinridge. Douglas ought to take up his residence in one of the territories and get naturalized.—N. Y. Post.

GOV. RANDALL'S APPOINTMENTS.—We are authorized to state that Gov. RANDALL will address the people on the political issues of the day at the following times and places:—Richland Centre, Friday, Oct. 12; Jefferson, Saturday, Oct. 13; Fox Lake, Monday, Oct. 15; Green Bay, Friday, Oct. 19; Appleton, Wednesday, Oct. 24; Menasha, Thursday, Oct. 25; Neenah, Thursday, Oct. 25.

HOW THE NEWS IS RECEIVED.

Effect of the Pennsylvania Election at Washington—Dismay of the Officials.

From Our Own Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10, 1860.

The Democracy, and especially the official portion of the Democracy at Washington, were never before so thoroughly overwhelmed with a sense of ruin as at the present moment; and the reflection that the blow comes from the old Keystone State adds poignancy to despair. In all former defeats there was still hope of resurrection. But now they sink to rise no more.

The first impulse of the Southern ultraists who hold office here, in this hour of their calamity, is to threaten a dissolution of the Union. Many of them have threatened to take up arms in vindication of Southern rights and honor. But these ebullitions of passion will soon pass away, and not one in a hundred of them but will be glad to find rest in Abraham's bosom. I apprehend that the aphorism of Jefferson will still hold good during the next four years, viz: that "few die and none resign." So that if Southern men wish to get office under Mr. Lincoln, they must prove their title clear by showing greater devotion to the Union than the gentlemen fire-eaters now here. This will not be hard to do.

The friends of Bell and Douglas, I am proud to say, fight the battles of the Union bravely with their Breckinridge allies, and threaten to hang even the highest officials to the lamp-posts if they give the slightest symptoms of affinity with the disunion schemers. It is reported that a leading Bellite has uttered treasonable threats, but I will not believe the report upon hearsay. The Republicans are too delighted with the result to quarrel or threaten, and are taking things quite coolly, leaving the "irrepressible conflict" to be fought out among their opponents.—N. Y. Times.

DELAWARE IN DOUBT.—The small State of Delaware, though a slave State, appears to be divided in its political sentiments.—At a late election for Inspectors, the friends of Breckinridge carried the day by a small majority, but were closely hugged by the friends of Lincoln. Both Bell and Douglas were in the minority; but it is supposed that if they should join forces they might possibly run ahead of Lincoln, and even come near Breckinridge. In the mean time, it is pretty certain that they will not coalesce, and that the Republicans are gaining strength every day. We should not be surprised to see Delaware on the right side in November.—N. Y. Post.

ESTABLISHED IN 1847.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

I AM NOW SETTLED IN MY NEW store, corner of Wisconsin and Main Streets, (Young's Block) a few doors below the Post Office. I have taken this location because I think it preferable for the auction business to any other in the city. Thousands of people pass the corner where I now am, which pass no other in the city, for it is well known that every person goes to the Post Office. I call upon all who have any Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Furniture, or Apples, or anything whatever, that they want to dispose of at auction, to send it to my auction room. I will use all my energy to dispose of all goods consigned to me to the best advantage, and prompt returns will be made. I have been engaged in the auction business in this city for thirteen years, and I have tried to do what is right unto all.

I also continue my Land Agency business. My office is in the rear of my store, entrance on Main St. I will attend to all sales of Real Estate either at public or private sale. I will make exchange of real estate with all who want to exchange. Any who have goods to exchange for good real estate in the city or country, I can always get them up a good trade and some money with it; probably there was never a better time to invest in real estate than the present. Prices of lots in our city are very low, lands adjoining our city are exceedingly low, compared to prices four years ago; but these low prices will not last long, and it is generally believed by all who have lived as long in the West as I have, that next spring will see a sudden rise in real estate throughout this city and country.

This is the time to secure you a good homestead. Now is the time to make investments. I call upon all who have property to dispose of to leave a list of the same with me. I keep a register expressly for that purpose, which will be exposed to the inspection of all, from day to day. I shall keep myself posted in real estate, from day to day, as I have done for the last ten years, and will be happy to give information to all who may wish it.

City Auctioneer and Land Agent,

All the timber must be of the very best quality of white oak, free from shakes, splits, rotten knots, or other imperfections; must be straight, well hewn or sawed square, and must measure full to the required dimensions.

It is desirable, if possible, to have about one-third (⅓) of the quantities marked thus *, delivered at each of the places before the close of navigation 1860; and the balance of that lot, together with those lengths marked thus †, on or before the 15th of April, 1861. The balance remaining undelivered, and not marked, must be delivered in two parcels, viz: the first half on or before the 15th of May, 1861, and the other half on or before the 15th of June, 1861, making four separate deliveries.

Bids will be received for the delivery of the whole amount required, or for lots or parcels of not less than five thousand (5,000) running feet. Bidders for furnishing less amounts than the whole quantity will state distinctly the lengths of timber; also the time, and at which place they propose to deliver it, stating the price per cubic foot. Each bid must be accompanied by a written guarantee of some responsible person, that the bidder is able to fulfill the contract.

The inspection and acceptance by the authorized agent of the Light House Board, as each lot is delivered, to be final.

The Light House Board reserves to itself the right to reject any or all the bids.

TERMS.—Each lot or parcel of timber delivered within the time before mentioned, will be paid for within fifteen days after its acceptance by the agent of the Board, reserving in each case twenty (20) per cent. till the contract is fulfilled.

Proposals should be endorsed "Proposals for furnishing Timber at Milwaukee, or Racine"—as the case may be—and directed to "Capt. WM. F. SMITH, Sec'y of L. H. Board, Washington, D. C.

Bryan's Tasteless Vermifuge.

SAVED! SAVED!

Physicians in vain came again and again,
The dear little angel grew worse,
"Tis a fatal disease, and we can't give her ease,"
Said the doctors to mother and nurse.
But the nurse in plain terms said, "'tis nothing but worms,"
And a cure pointed out right away;
BRYAN'S VERMIFUGE mild, then they gave to the child,
And behold! she was well the next day.

THE MIGHTY HEALER.

LET NOT DISEASE, WITH ITS fangs, prey upon you, until the cold hand of death hurls you to an untimely grave. Shake off the feeling of despair and hopelessness, so liable to come upon the invalid. The plant born of the Sun we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific order of the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impure blood, and through the different channels of the lungs, stomach and the vital organs, JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will pass, mingling with the blood, search out and grasp and then expel, all hurtful poison that there is in it. Thus cleanse the blood by a few doses of these Pills, and disease in any form, will dissipate and vanish. As the Sun with its glorious beams first causes the morning dew to rise as mist, then growing stronger casts his burning rays upon it—and behold 'tis gone—so cleanse the blood, and disease, like morning dew, retreats and vanishes. There is no blood purifier equal to JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS.

THE BEAUTY-HAUNTED.

BY SALLIE M. BRYAN.

I remember it all—how the sleepy June
Was breathing her life in sweetness that night,
How she drew the empurpled clouds from the moon,
As a languid queen of the orient might
Draw a shadowy veil from her fair, pale face,
Or a tropical sea its dusky waves
From a great, white pearl. I remember the place,
And the thoughts as weary as galley-slaves.

I remember the lily, which bent, like a nun
In her saintly grace so serene and cold,
Where the glow-worms beside her dropped, one by one,
Like the beads from a rosary of gold;
I remember the wood, and the moaning dove
Hid down in the shade on his lonely breast,
Like the sighing soul of a desolate love
'Neath the sable fold of a hermit's vest.

I remember the breeze, which sang on the hill,
And the waving bloom of the grassy plain—
Ah! the roses will blow in the gardens still,
But they'll never bud in my heart again—
I remember the broken stones and staves
Of the church-yard near, and the child asleep,
The shade on the cradle, the light on the graves,
And the fancy which caused me to joy and to weep.

And O I remember the most of all
The last hot clasp of his snowy hand,
And the horrible coldness, which seemed to fall
On the summer sky and the summer land,
When I bade him go to his home afar,
And shook his smile from my sorrowful heart,
As the night might have shaken a blasted star
From its dark, or the storm a lightning-dart.

And I know how the scorn from the passionate lip
Followed him on toward the splendor away,
As the tempest will follow a flying ship
Toward the spicy air of an Indian bay,
Or an arrow a swift, bright bird toward a nest
In a lotus-grove. It is over now,
And I am alone—perchance it is best—
With a viewless veil on my pallid brow.

I shattered my heart on his beauty, alas!
As a billow shatters a rose-lined shell
On a coral isle, and the music did pass
From that heart, in a murm'rous faint farewell,
Like a moan from that shell. But his memory yet
As pale and cold as the ghost of a dream,
Drifts over my bosom upon a regret,
Like a shivering swan on a wild, dark stream.

And oft in the middle of night, as of old,
I call his name, and think he will hear,
And tangle my hand in his ringlets of gold,
And wake, and find that he is not near.
Ah! the loveliest loveliness still may rise
O'er the scenes from whence he vanished of yore,
But such red-curved lips and such violet eyes
Will never be seen on earth any more.

Now I think of a thousand old things and sweet,
Of a thousand visions fair—and vain,
And their silvery wings do glitter and beat
To the dim, slow sound of the twilight rain;
I think of the blossoms blown purple and red,
Of the yellow moonlight's glimmering fall,
And—and—of a thousand sweet things I have said,
But he was the sweetest amongst them all.

Well, I'm dreaming too much. He's in Heaven now—
But lest he is changed in the infinite bliss,
I fancy the glory which burns on his brow
Will not atone for the loss of my kiss.
And that oft when he looks through the radiant bars
Whose splendor divides the earth and the skies,
He thinks there's no pleasure in reading the stars
Like he used to find in reading my eyes.

And a something of Eden is everywhere;
It smiles in the sun and sings in the sea,
But the convent-gates of a stony despair
Are shutting the beautiful world from me.
And they tell me that love is filling with light
The void which he left in my bosom's deep—
But we do not see that the morning is bright—
When it takes the angels away from sleep.

THE MYSTERIOUS SKETCH.

FROM THE GERMAN.

At the corner of the Rue des Trabans, opposite the chapel of St. Sebald, in Nuremberk, there stands a little inn, tall and narrow, with notched gables, and dim window pane, and its roof surmounted by a plaster virgin. In this I passed the saddest days of my life. I had gone to Nuremburg to study the old German masters, but the want of money had compelled me to have recourse to painting portraits—and such portraits! Fat gossips, with their cats on their knees, aldermen in their perukes, burgo-masters in three cornered hats, etc.—all brilliant with ochre and vermillion.

From portraits I descended to sketches; then to profiles; at last, even these failed me.

There is nothing more pitiable than to have constantly at your heels a landlord with thin lips, a screaming voice, and an impudent air, who never loses a chance to call out: "Are you going to pay me soon, monsieur? Do you know how much your bill amounts?" Oh, no, of course this does not trouble you. Monsieur eats, drinks and sleeps quietly. The good Lord takes care of the little sparrows. Monsieur only owes two hundred florins and ten kreutzers. A mere trifle, not worth the trouble of mentioning.

Those who have never heard this gamut sounding in their ears, can form no idea of the horror of it. The love of art, imagination, the lofty enthusiasm for the beautiful—wither at the very breath of such a rascal. You become weak and timid; you lose even the sentiment of your personal dignity, and salute at a distance, and respectfully, the most clownish of burgomasters.

One night having not a sou in my pocket, and being threatened with a prison by the worthy master Rapp, I sat down on my truckle-bed and gave myself up to reflection. The thought of suicide entered my head; and the more I reflected, the more desirable such an exit from my troubles appeared to my mind. So numerous and convincing were the arguments in its favor which thronged upon me, that I dared not look at my razor, lest the irresistible force of logic should compel me to commit bankruptcy by cutting my throat. At length I blew out my candle, and threw myself on the bed, with a determination to come to a decision on the next day.

My dreams were usually of the abominable Rapp; my own desire, to get money that I might rid myself of his odious presence.—But this night a singular revolution took place in my mind. In about an hour I rose, and wrapping myself in an old grey coat, I began to trace on paper a rapid sketch in the Dutch style—something strange, fantastic, quite apart from my habitual conceptions.

Imagine to yourself a sombre court, inclosed by high, dilapidated walls. These walls, garnished with hooks seven or eight feet from the ground, suggest at once a slaughter house. On the left, through a trellis work of laths, you discern a quartered ox, suspended by strong pulleys from the ceiling; drops of blood trickling from it collect in a gutter obstructed by the refuse of the shambles. The light in the court comes from above, where chimneys, and weather-cocks, and storied roofs of houses are relieved against an angle of the sky. At the extremity is a shed, beneath it a wood pile, upon which is a ladder, and scattered around are seen ropes, bundles of straw, a rabbit-hut, and hen-coops, past service.

How did these heterogeneous details come into my head? I cannot tell. I had no remembrance of any such place, and yet every stroke of the pencil seemed by its truthfulness an exact copy. Nothing was wanting.

But on the right a corner of the sketch remained bare. I did not know what to put there; but I was disquieted, agitated, as I looked upon it. Suddenly I saw a foot, but it was in a reverse position, and detached from the ground. Spite of its improbability, I followed the inspiration, and sketched it, without stopping to account for my fancy. Then the leg appeared and a portion of the dress. At length the whole figure—an old woman, haggard, wan, disheveled, thrown down against the edge of a well, struggling against a strong hand which grasped her throat.

It was a murder I was sketching! The crayon fell from my hands. The old woman—her face contracted by terror, her form bent over the margin of the well, both hands grasping the arm of her murderer—terrified me. I dared not look at her. But the man—the murderer—to whom the arm belonged, I could not see it. It was impossible to finish my sketch.

The sweat drops stood upon my brow.—"I am fatigued," I said. "But little remains to be done. I will complete it to-morrow," and terrified by the vision, lay down upon the bed, and in five minutes slept profoundly.

The next day, as I was about to resume my work, a knock resounded at the door.

"Come in," I called out; and a man somewhat advanced in years, tall, thin, and dressed in black, appeared upon the threshold. The whole physiognomy of the man—his closely approximating eyes, his aquiline nose, his lofty, broad and bony brow—had something severe and imposing. He saluted me gravely.

"M. Christian Venius, the artist, he said.

"That is my name sir."

"The Baron Frederick Van Spreckdal."

The apparition in my poor garret of this amateur, judge of the criminal court, impressed me strongly. I threw a glance upon my worm-eaten furniture, tattered draperies, and dirty floor; and felt humiliated; but Van Spreckdal appeared to pay no attention to these details.

"Master Venius," he resumed, "I have come"——.

But at that moment his eyes were arrested by the unfinished sketch, and he stopped.

"Are you the author of this sketch?" he asked, after a moment's pause.

"Yes, sir."

"What is the price of it?"

"I do not sell my sketches. It is a design for a picture."

"Ah!" said he; and lifting the paper with his long, yellow finger, he took an eye glass from his waistcoat pocket, and began to study it attentively. The silence was so great that I heard distinctly the plaintive buzzing of a fly caught in a spider's web.

"And what will be the dimensions of the picture, Master Venius, he said at length, without looking at me.

"Three feet by four."

"And the price?"

"Fifty ducats."

Van Spreckdal laid the sketch down on the table, and drawing from his pocket a long purse of green silk, began to slip the rings along. "Fifty ducats," he said, and counting them out, "here they are."

He rose, saluted me, and departed, while I sat stupified, listening to the clink of his ivory headed cane upon the staircase.

When I recovered from my stupefaction, I sat down to finish my sketch. A few strokes of the pencil and it would be finished. But these few strokes were out of my power.—The inspiration was over. The mysterious murderer would not disengage himself from the convolutions of my brain. I tried again and again. I forced myself to draw; but the results were as discordant as a figure of Raphael in a Dutch inn of Teniers.

At this moment Rapp according to his praiseworthy custom, opened the door without knocking. His eyes fell upon the pile of ducats and he shrieked:

"Ah, ah, I have caught you, Monsieur painter. You pretended you had no money," and he extended his crooked fingers with that nervous trembling which the sight of gold always produces in a miser.

The remembrance of all the insults I had suffered from him exasperated me. With a single bound, I seized him, and thrusting him over the threshold, flattened his nose with the door. The old usurer shrieked:

"My money, thief! robber! my money!" till every lodger in the house ran out, asking, "What is the matter?" I opened the door quickly, and, with a single stroke of the foot, sent Master Rapp rolling down the staircase.

"That is the matter," I said, and closing my door, I double locked it, while the shouts of laughter from the neighbors saluted the old miser in his progress down stairs.

L. LYON'S
Pure Ohio Catawba Brandy!

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS BEEN DULY appointed the only and sole agent for this

PURE MEDICINAL BRANDY

For the City of Milwaukee. The Brandy has been thoroughly analyzed by the N. Y. State Assayer, Dr. A. A. Hayes, Chemist, and Prof. Roman Sheppard, Charleston, S. C.; Prof. T. S. Chilton, New York; Prof. Pratt, of Savannah; Prof. Lamont, J. R. Nichols, of Boston; and Dr. Cox, of Cincinnati; and pronounced by them to be strictly pure, and an excellent stimulant in all cases where pure Brandies are indicated.

The manufacturer of this fine Brandy guarantees (as will be found by analysis) that it will cure

CHOLERA INFANTUM,
SUMMER COMPLAINT WITH CHILDREN,
DIARRHOEA,
BOWEL COMPLAINT,
DYSPEPSIA,
FLATULENCY,
CRAMP,
COLIC,
LANGUOR,
LOW SPIRITS,
GENERAL DEBILITY AND NERVOUSNESS.

Physicians are now prescribing it in the place of Paragoric—not having the deleterious effect of that medicine upon the brain.

The physicians in each city, town or village in the State are solicited to apply to the undersigned, who will give them a bottle free of charge, to try before prescribing.

Dose for an infant six weeks old, one teaspoonful, diluted in two tablespoonful of cold water, and given by the teaspoonful every five minutes until relief is effected.

Adults and children in proportion.

The want of pure Medical Brandy has long been felt in this country.

The properties contained in this Brandy are more stringent than French Brandies. This the manufacturers claim are the merits, and challenge the world to disprove these facts.

ISAAC JACOBS is the only appropriating agent for the United States and Canadas, 90 and 142 Third Street, Cincinnati.

Medical.

THE GREATEST
MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.
Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of erysipelas.
One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.
Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.
Five or eight bottles will cure the worst cases of scrofula.
One or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. I know from the experience of thousands that it has been caused by a canker in the stomach.
One or two bottles are warranted to cure sick headache.
One or two bottles are warranted to regulate a costive state of the bowels.
One or two bottles will regulate all derangement of the kidneys.
Four to six bottles has cured the worst cases of dropsy.
By strictly following the directions in the pamphlet around each bottle, and a judicious application of the

SALT RHEUM OINTMENT,
SCROFULA OINTMENT and HEALING OINTMENT,

every sore and ulcer, of whatever kind or nature, except cancer, that has taken root, is perfectly and permanently cured.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.

Nursing Sore Mouth

is cured as if by a miracle: your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

Canker

it extends to the stomach, causing

Dyspepsia

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Kidneys

Your stomach is

Raw and Inflamed,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

Cure:

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the Piles.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly, DONALD KENNEDY.

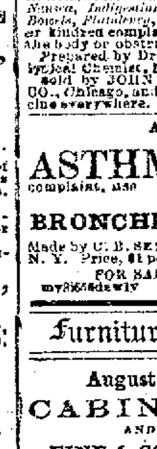
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Incipient Consumption,

AND FOR THE RELIEF OF CONSUMPTIVE patients in advanced stages of the disease.



We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and almost every hamlet of the United States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil, to produce it the most perfect possible and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrative properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere.

Medical.

MOFFAT'S
Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters!

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of THIRTY YEARS, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES

Are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these Medicines, was cured of Piles, of 25 years standing by the use of the LIFE MEDICINES alone.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the western country, these Medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure of these Medicines is permanent—TRY THEM, BE SATISFIED AND BE CURED.

BILIOUS FEVERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Females—the Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description: King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

It is not too Much to Say
SINCE ALL,
OLD AND YOUNG
Affirm its Truth,

VIZ: THAT PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE will preserve infallibly the growth and color of the hair, if used two or three times a week, to any imaginable age. Perfectly restores the gray, covers the bald with nature's own ornament, the hair; makes it more soft and beautiful than any oil, and preserves the scalp free from all disease to the greatest age. Statesmen, Judges, Attorneys, Doctors, Clergymen, Professional men, and Gentlemen and Ladies of all classes, all over the world, bear testimony that we do not say too much in its favor. Read the following, and judge:

HICKORY GROVE, St. Charles Co., Mo., November 19, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Hair Restorative; we did so with little hope of success, but to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can, therefore, and do hereby recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair.

We are Yours respectfully,
GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: My hair had, for several years, been becoming prematurely gray, accompanied by a harshness which rendered the constant application of oil necessary in dressing it. When I commenced using your Hair Restorative about two months ago it was in that condition; and having continued its use till within the last three weeks, it has been turned to its natural color, and assumed a softness and lustre greatly to be preferred to those produced by the application of oils or any other preparation I have ever used. I regard it as an indispensable article for every lady's toilet, whether to be used as a Hair Restorative or for the simple purpose of dressing or beautifying the hair. You have permission to refer to me all who entertain any doubt of its performing all that is claimed for it.

MRS. C. SYMONDS,
Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 10, 1857. 174 Third st.

WELLINGTON, Mo., Dec. 6, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: By the advice of a friend of mine, who had been using your Restorative, I was induced to try it. I had the fever, some time last May, and nearly every hair in my head came out. Now my hair has come in a great deal thicker than ever it was. Nothing but a duty and sympathy that I feel to communicate to others who are afflicted as I have been, would induce me to give this public acknowledgement of the benefit I have received from Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.

Yours respectfully,
A. R. JACOBS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

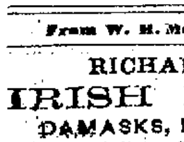
SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE,
For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.



THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetizing Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try Morel, Soyer's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15—3 P. M.

An old man named Edward Donnelly was burned to death at a fire on his premises Saturday night.

The South American mails, from Valparaiso of the 15th, and Callao 29th September, arrived at Panama on the 6th, too late to come by the North Star. There is no probability of our claims against her being allowed. Gen. Belzu had again assumed a revolutionary attitude in Califia, and is said to be supported by the Emperor of Peru.—From Ecuador we learn that Flores had entered Guayalia on the 26th, meeting little resistance.

Kidnapping at Galena.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15—3 P. M.

An outrageous case of kidnapping occurred at Galena the latter part of September. A negro named Jerry Boyd, 45 years of age, his wife a mulatto 35 years of age, and his daughter aged 14 years, were induced to go to Iowa to work on a farm. On the 8th of this month the man was found near Iowa City, murdered. It was supposed that becoming suspicions, he was killed, that the kidnappers might retain possession of the women. The citizens of Galena have offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the kidnappers.

Accident to the John L. Stephens.

NEW YORK, Oct 15—3 P. M.

The John L Stephens, about the safety of which some apprehensions were entertained, met with an accident to her machinery, but was taken into Acapulco by the aid of the sloop-of war Cayenne. Her passengers, mail and crew were transferred to the Union. The J. L. Stephens was subsequently taken in tow by the Golden Gate for San Francisco.

Lieut. Wilkins died on board and was buried at Acapulco.

Fire at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 15—3 P. M.

The interior of the edifice occupied by the Kentucky School of Medicine, on the corner of Fifth and Green streets, was burned this morning. Loss $5,000. The museum and cabinet was saved. Lectures will be continued at the hospital. The edifice will be restored in a few weeks.

Railroad Accident.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14—3 P. M.

Prescott Smith, master of the transportation of the Baltimore R. R, while getting off the Cincinnati express train, lost a portion of his foot, and only escaped instant death by presence of mind. He is now doing well.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARABIA!

ST. JOHNS, via Sackville, Oct. 15.

The Royal Mail steamship Arabia, Capt. Stone, from Liverpool, Saturday 6th, via Queenstown, the 17th inst., passed Cape Race at noon, the 14th, and was boarded by the news yacht of the Associated Press.

The news by the Arabia is one week later than previously received by the Arabia.—She is bound to Halifax and Boston and will be due at the former port on Tuesday.

The Daily News says that the Great Eastern Co. have dispensed with the services of Capt. Hall and Mr. Dillan, the chief engineer. The detention of the ship, during the winter at Milford Haven, may have something to do this.

NAPLES.—It is stated, via Genoa, that Garibaldi had sent a despatch to Naples, dated the 1st, announcing a victory along the whole lines, and that the Royal troops were being pursued.

The Detto, of Turin, publishes despatches, dated Naples 2d, stating that the Royal troops were repulsed from Caserto and were surrounded. The Garibaldians made 2000 prisoners. The above victories lacked confirmation. It is reported that Garibaldi had invited Victor Emanuel to go to Naples and assume authority, and he would retire to his home.

Senator Douglas in Detroit.

DETROIT, Oct 15—9 P. M.

Senator Douglas arrived here this morning, and in the evening addressed an immense concourse of people gathered from the eastern part of the State, from a stand erected in open air on Campius Martius. His speech was mainly in reply to Gov. Seward's, delivered here last month. A torch-light procession of an immense affair, equivalent in number of torches to anything ever attempted here. He leaves for Kalamazoo to-morrow morning, where he speaks in the afternoon.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15—9 P. M.

Jas. P. Robertson, a clerk 22 years of age, who had drank freely during the evening, stumbled against an unknown man at the corner of Prince and Broadway streets on Saturday night, and was knocked down, the latter causing a fracture of the skull, and subsequently death.

Roland H. Macey and Sam'l S. Huffton, dry goods merchants, have been arrested on a charge of false pretensions, made by two Insurance companies. A fire in their store occasioned a claim against said companies, which, it is alleged, increased by the throwing of undamaged goods among the injured ones.

Later from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15—9 P. M.

The schooner Carrie Sanford arrived from Tampico.

On the 5th, Garley, the Mexican Minister of the Treasury, had resigned.

The Liberals were operating on Guadalajara, and the city was daily expected to fall.

Efforts were making to raise money to defend the Capitol. A new force loan was talked.

The Prince at Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 15—9 P. M.

The royal fleet that is to convey the Prince of Wales to England, was signalled off Portland, Maine, at an early hour this morning. Lord Renfrew will be received at the Roxbury line, on Wednesday P. M. by a committee of the city government and a battalion of light dragoons, who will escort him to the Revere House. No other demonstration will be made in his honor until Thursday, which is to be observed in the city as a general holiday.

Loss by Fire.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 15—9 P. M.

The loss sustained by the Cleveland & Pittsburg R. R., by fire, Sunday morning, is greatly exaggerated. The loss will not exceed $10,000, and loss of engines will not in any manner effect the running of cars.

Mail Robber Sentenced.

RUTLAND, Vt. Oct. 15—9 P. M.

John Whitcomb, the mail robber, was to-day sentenced to States Prison for ten years.

NORFOLK, Oct. 15—9 P. M.

The U. S. steamer Richmond sailed yesterday for the Mediterranean.

Receipts of wheat to-day were 106,564 bus; shipments trifling, owing to the scarcity of vessels. The upward tendency of the market received a severe check in another heavy advance in freights. Early in the day some vessels were engaged to load for Buffalo at 16½@17½c, and very soon 18c were freely offered, and still later 20c, at which figure two propellers were chartered. Under this state of things the market opened languid, and before the close of 'Change a decline of 2c was fully established, with large offers at the depreciated prices. In the afternoon there were no transactions of any account, the views of buyers and recievers being 2c apart. The former asked 90c for No. 1, and the latter with rare exceptions limited their offers to 88c and 86c for No. 2 in store. In the morning the transactions were chiefly confined to bagged lots at 92c for No. 1 delivered, and 93@95 for Club and extra Club delivered. The amount of wheat in store here at the present time is estimated at 500,000 bushels. It will take a good big fleet of vessels to move this, but still it is not likely that present exorbitant rates can be maintained.—They are now higher, if we are not mistaken, than at any other time within five years. Flour was not in so good demand, but prices paid do not indicate any material change in the market. It is, however, extremely difficult to sell this afternoon, the upward tendency in freights and advance in rates of insurance tending to depress the markets. The sales reported were confined to about 650 bbls at $4,50@4,65 for fair to choice country extra and $5,00 for fancy city extra. Hides active and unchanged. Coarse grains quiet.

Grain freights advanced 4c, closing firm and vessels scarce at 20c to Buffalo. The following engagements are propeller Sun, Collingwood 14½c; schooner Geo. Davis, Buffalo at 16½; Geo. Dousman, (to arrive) at 17½c; Col. Fairchild at 17½c; propellers Mohawk and Potomac 20c; and the schooner Geo. Barber to load at Sheboygan for Buffalo at 22c.

THE PROPELLER BALTIC.

The side-wheel prop. Baltic, Capt. James Averell, which has been out of commission since 1855, arrived here yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Buffalo. She was built in 1847 a side wheel passenger steamer, and run some years between Buffalo and Chicago, and first commanded by Capt. L. H. Cotton, now of the Burlington. In the early part of 1855 her mode of propulsion was changed by the introduction of Whitaker's pair of patent side screws; she run the greater part of that year under the command of her present captain, since which time she has been laid by. She left Buffalo on her present trip up on Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock, and Erie 6 P. M., arriving here as above noted, which may be considered good running time. She is freighted here by Duncan Stewart, Esq., for Buffalo, leaving here to-night or early to-morrow morning.—Detroit Tribune.

CHICAGO AND THE EAST.

FARE AS LOW AS ANY OTHER ROUTE.

Passengers wishing to go by this desirable and pleasant Route, should be particular and ask for Tickets by Fort Wayne, avoiding the annoyance of re-checking baggage as by other routes.

Trains leave the depot on VAN BUREN St., daily as follows:

CHECKING BAGGAGE THROUGH

R. to Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable, both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

To Shippers of Freight
TO THE NORTH-WEST.
THE LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL
UNITED STATES MAIL PACKET LINE
Running only between LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL for the transmission of Passengers, Freight and Mails.

THE PACKET LINE IS COMPOSED of the Steam Packets

Favorite, Frank Steele, Winona, and Aeolian,

Acknowledged to be the best boats for the trade upon the Upper Mississippi, being of lighter draft than any now running.

This Line carries the United States Mail, and has not missed a daily connection since it was established, with the trains, either way, upon the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad.

Shippers from Milwaukee will see that this is the most reliable Line of Boats for Freight, as the lightness of draft enables them to make their trip without delay, while by any other route delays are unavoidable.

One of the above Boats will leave La Crosse every evening, on the arrival of the 1:50 P. M. train from Milwaukee, and returning arrive at La Crosse in season to connect with the Express Passenger train, which leaves at 5 A. M.
